

ANGELINE GOH

Curiosity came before creativity for me at a very young age. I never stopped being curious and that is how I wish my artworks to expand and grow... through my curiosity.

I majored in English Literature and Arts in high School, back home in Malaysia and as most Asian parents, Art was never seen as a career. My works have always been about bringing out the best emotion out of the viewer and I continue to pursue this in all my works.

SKILLS

Mixed media painting
Sculpting
Woodworks
Landscape design
Interior Design
Furniture Restoration
Furniture designing and making
Project Manager for home building design
Graphic Design

ACHIEVEMENTS

Designed Ceramic Pots for S'wonderful Ceramics for over 10 years
Completed garden landscape designs with my ceramic works
Designed commercial venues such as foyers of apartments, restaurant interiors and entry ways
Designed and furnished residential homes
Custom Paint Canvases using Acrylic
Custom made tables and chest boxes out of wood for Clients (Woodworks)
Commissioned artwork for private clients
Sculping and painting projects for a Gallery

INTERESTS

The Arts
Architecture
Design
Curiosity to learn more skills

LIFE GOALS

To keep living life with a passion and discover the beauty of mankind and the world each day and see the world with gratitude and beauty.